Career Highlights

As Chair of the Council on Social Work Education's (CSWE) Commission on Research from 2015-2018, helped rewrite the group's mission statement and collaborated to build initiatives to embrace it, including establishing with SAGE Publications a national award for Innovation in Research Instruction, updating CSWE's Research Priorities, developing a comprehensive bibliography and 4 webinars on teaching research, and sponsoring of the first national Faculty Survey on Quality of Life.

As Director of the PhD Program in Social Work at VCU for 13 years, successfully established a "culture of completion" and played a role in the recruitment and graduation of over 100 doctoral students with an 85% retention rate and the formal involvement of 95% of the faculty in the program.

As elected Chair of the Group for the Advancement of Doctoral Education in Social Work (GADE), the national professional organization of all social work PhD Directors, played lead role in updating the organization mission statement, commissioning the updating of the GADE Guidelines for Quality in Doctoral Education, and expanding GADE's visibility through the establishment of a reception at Society for Social Work & Research conference.

Directed eleven PhD dissertations and launched students to successful careers as scholars and leaders in the social work academy and in practice. Served on 16 other dissertation/thesis committees; Formally mentored junior faculty through the promotion and tenure process, which has been recognized by CSWE's Council on the Role and Status of Women as well as VCU's doctoral alumni.

With grant money awarded by the Ittleson Foundation, planned and implemented the first ever National Conference on Social Work and Psychopharmacology in 2003, which took place entirely on the World Wide Web with commissioned papers and competitively chosen books reviews uploaded then discussed in chat rooms by virtual participants around the world.

Appointed by Dr. King Davis in 1991 to chair the 45-member statewide advisory council for Virginia's Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services and played a role in getting legislation passed requiring consumer & family representation on its Board.

Taught over 140 course sections and supervised 60 independent studies; Developed from inception numerous MSW elective and required syllabi including "Social Work Practice in Community Mental Health," "Social Work Practice & Psychopharmacology," "Mental, Emotional & Behavioral Disorders," "Social Policy and the Mental Health System," and "Foundations of Research."

Published three books (one in its 4th edition), over 80 articles, book chapters, and book reviews, made over 55 national and 150 local presentations, winning author awards for "Best Conceptual Article" and "Best Quantitative Article" in 2016 by the Journal of Social Work Education.

Served on editorial boards of some of the most important journals in the discipline including Social Work, Journal of Social Work Education, and as charter member of Research on Social Work Practice and Best Practices in Mental Health, winning "Reviewer of the Year" twice by the Journal of Social Work Education.

Served for over 25 years as a CSWE Accreditation Site Team Member, Site Team Chair, and external program consultant involving about 25 evaluative visits to BSW and MSW programs around the country.

Served six years on the Board of Directors of the Virginia chapter of the National Alliance on Mental Illness; active in developing and disseminating a model of family education around the state called MESA.

Served six years as Chair/Vice-Chair/Member of the local Human Rights Committee for Central State Hospital, one of the state's major psychiatric facilities, which reviewed policies and practices through a lens of human rights and served as an appeals board to claims of abuse and neglect.
