GRANTS / FELLOWSHIPS IN RESEARCH

Current Grant Involvement

VCU College of Humanities & Sciences Catalyst Awards    McGinnis (Co-PI)      Award: 02/15/19
Title: Weak ties, strong ties & absent ties: Developing mathematical models of college students' social networks to improve mental health and educational outcomes.

The purpose of this mixed methods study is to develop a network survey instrument and collect preliminary data on the social networks of emerging adult undergraduate college students. The aim of the study is to explore the relationship between histories of trauma on personal social networks, and association between characteristics of a person's social networks on mental health and academic outcomes.

Role: Co-PI ($17,000)

Grant Proposals in Preparation:

Jeffress Trust Awards in Interdisciplinary Research    McGinnis (PI)                  Prelim. Proposal: 11/26/19

Title: Developing Mathematical Models of College Students' Social Ties to Improve Mental Health

The aim of this study is to follow a sample of college students from each grade cohort (first to fourth-year students) to understand: (1) how social networks of emerging adults in college change over the course of one academic year and factors associated with those changes; (2) how changes in a person's network relate to their mental health; and (3) variations in social networks and mental health across grade cohorts (e.g. first, second, third, and fourth-year students).

Role: PI ($100,000)

VCU Presidential Research Quest Fund                                  McGinnis (PI)                                  To Submit: 5/20

Title: Exploring the needs of foster, adoptive, and guardianship emerging adults: Addressing histories of trauma, social support, and mental health.

The goal of this study is to utilize mixed methods to understand the relationship between trauma histories, social support (perceived social support and social network characteristics), and mental health of emerging adults who grew up in foster, adoptive, and guardianship families.

Role: PI ($50,000).

Completed Grant Involvement:

Washington University in St. Louis, International Dissertation Award McGinnis (PI) 2014-2015
Title: Mental health and Academic Outcomes among Adolescents in South Korean Orphanages
(Dissertation)
Role: PI ($7,500)

Fulbright U.S. Student Award McGinnis (PI) Award: 04/13/2013
Title: Mental health and Academic Outcomes among Adolescents in South Korean Orphanages
(Dissertation)
Role: PI ($36,000)

The Korea Foundation Fellowship for Field Research McGinnis (PI) 2013-2014
Title: Mental health and Academic Outcomes among Adolescents in South Korean Orphanages
(Dissertation)
Role: PI ($10,000)

CDC R49 CE001510 Center For Violence and Injury Prevention Jonson-Reid (PI) 2010-2015
Auslander (PI), Center Large RO1 Project
Title: Violence Prevention for Adolescent Girls with Prior Maltreatment Five-year randomized-controlled trial adapting, implementing, and evaluating a trauma-based intervention, Cognitive Behavioral Intervention for Trauma in Schools (CBITS), for adolescent girls involved in the child welfare system.
Role: Research Assistant, Group Therapist

CDC R49 CE001510 Center For Violence and Injury Prevention Jonson-Reid (PI) Spring 2011
Title: Teen Pregnancy Prevention Project
Evaluation of the Teen Pregnancy Prevention project.
Role: Research Assistant

NIH/NCRR (UL1 RR024992) Proctor (PI) Summer-Fall 2010
Title: Dissemination and Implementation Research Core Research on implementation design, outcomes and other resources to assist scholars interested in implementation science; co-wrote bibliography of implementation science research and practice.
Role: Research Assistant

CDC R49 CE001510 McMillen & Kohl (PI) Spring 2010
Title: Moving Parent Training into Child Welfare Systems
Study to explore how child welfare case managers interact with parents and caregivers around issues of behavior management and receptivity to parent training concepts and strategies.
Role: Research Assistant

WK Kellogg Foundation P0115462 McGinnis (PI) 2005-2009
Title: Promoting Healthy Identity Formation in Adoption
Study to explore how to promote healthy identity formation (racial/ethnic and adoptive) in adoption.
Role: PI ($100,000)

Grant Applications Not Funded:

NIMH CHIPS Research Training Institute      McGinnis (PI)      Submit: 2/15/19    Reject: 4/4/19
Title: Reducing trauma and externalizing behavior problems through the adolescent years: Meeting the needs of foster, adoptive, & guardianship families.

The goal of this application is to develop a grant proposal that will be submitted as a K01 award to NIMH. The proposed grant focuses on optimizing existing evidence-based interventions to treat trauma and reduce externalizing behavior problems for adolescents in adopted, foster, or guardianship families in the U.S., and gain substantive training in interventions research and implementation science.

Russell Sage Foundation      McGinnis (Co-PI)      Submit: 11/30/18;    Reject: 1/23/19
Title: Disentangling the heterogeneity of ethnic identity achievement among adults of color

The purpose of this study is to examine factors related to ethnic identity achievement among adults of color raised in same-race and transracial adoptive families in the United States utilizing meta-analytic techniques.

Role: Co-Principal Investigator ($33,800)
