

Sarah Lineberry, MSW, LCSW
1000 Floyd Avenue
Richmond, Virginia 23220
lineberrys2@vcu.edu

Research Interests:

Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities, Home and Community Based Services, community integration, quality of life and wellbeing

Education

Virginia Commonwealth University School of Social Work PhD Program	Richmond, VA Expected 2023
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Social Work Master of Social Work Nonprofit Leadership Certificate	Chapel Hill, NC May 2016
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Bachelor of Science in Psychology with a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish Minor in Anthropology	Chapel Hill, NC May 2013

Fellowships

Leadership Education in Neurodevelopmental and Related Disabilities (LEND)	2015-2016
--	-----------

Research Experience

Research Assistant , Virginia Commonwealth University Assists Dr. Matthew Bogenschutz in conducting interdisciplinary research related to intellectual and developmental disabilities.	2019-Present
--	--------------

LEND Trainee , University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Designed an IRB-approved study to examine barriers to healthcare for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Conducted qualitative interviews on healthcare access with individuals with IDD, their family members, and healthcare providers to identify barriers and potential solutions to improve healthcare access for patients with complex medical needs	2015-2016
---	-----------

Practice Experience

Director of Professional Services , L'Arche Chicago L'Arche Chicago Supported the quality of life of residents with intellectual and developmental disabilities by overseeing the development and implementation of appropriate and effective programs and services. Ensured that residents'	2016-2019 medical, behavioral, and mental health needs were met by coordinating appointments and implementing appropriate follow up. Chaired Human Rights Committee and annual Person Centered Planning Meetings. Monitored state and federal benefits including Medicare, Medicaid, SNAP, and Social Security. Monitored compliance with state regulations and oversaw implementation of corrective action plans as needed.
---	-----------

Manager, Extraordinary Ventures June 2016-September 2016
Managed small businesses employing individuals with IDD. Coordinated and supervised employees and job coaches.

Program Associate/Intern, The Arc of North Carolina 2015-2016
Attended meetings at the North Carolina General Assembly with The Arc's advocacy team. Conducted policy research and analysis to inform stakeholders on IDD policy. Collaborated with Easter Seals UCP to implement the North Carolina Council on Developmental Disabilities' Medical Health Home initiative

Direct Support Professional, The Arc of the Triangle 2015-2016
Supported individuals with IDD at home and in the community. Coordinated with individuals and their families to plan and implement goals.

Live-In House Assistant, L'Arche Edinburgh 2013-2014
Lived with and supported adults with developmental disabilities in an integrated community setting. Worked with assistants from a variety of cultural, linguistic, and professional backgrounds

Publications

Peer-Reviewed Journal Articles

Under Review

Prohn, S., Broda, M., Bogenschutz, M., Dinora, P., & Lineberry, S. (under review). Conceptualization and validation of a personal opportunity measure for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

In Progress

Bogenschutz, M., Broda, M., Lineberry, S., Dinora, P., & Prohn, S. (in progress). Empirical validation of a wellness indicators measure for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Lineberry, S. & Bogenschutz, M. (in progress). Voting among people with intellectual and developmental disabilities: Systematic review of the international literature.

Lineberry, S., Bogenschutz, M., & Brandt, J. (in progress). Predictors of voting in adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Service to the Community

Medical Reserve Corp Volunteer, Richmond City Health District May 2020-Present

Provide non-clinical support at COVID-19 testing events in Richmond City and Henrico County, Virginia

Board Member, L'Arche Metro Richmond

July 2020-Present